QUEEN MARY 2: Hamburg via Southampton to New York Routes to the Roots Jubilee Transatlantic Tour 2012

August 19 – Sept. 01, 2012

It is more than 20 years ago that AEMI met on board the QUEEN ELIZABETH 2 en route to New York. It was in 1995 when the "Routes to the Roots" network of AEMI met in New York. And it was in 1996 that I started my cultural heritage and travel program. Many reasons to look back.

And many reasons to revitalize the idea of a joint sailing from Europe to the New World, share friendship, visit friends and colleagues and set the mood back in time for a while. On board and in New York we enjoy conversations, receptions and lectures, share memories and the unique transatlantic travel experience aboard this splendid ocean liner.

- Aug 19 Individual travel to Hamburg. QUEEN MARY 2 leaves in the early evening: a magnificent farewell, the city gets crazy, thousands of people along the harbour, fireworks, illuminations, bye bye.
